

The bar chart displays the distribution of 15 categories across a range from 0 to 80,000. The categories are represented by different colored bars: blue, orange, red, green, purple, pink, grey, yellow, cyan, dark blue, light blue, dark green, brown, light green, and dark red. The chart shows various peaks and troughs, with some categories having very high values at specific points.

